THRILLING STRUGGLE FOR THE INVIN-CIBLE HANDICAP AT BRIGHTON.

Mr. Keene Declares His Colt Should Have Won Easily-Dissatisfied with Miller's Ride-Jockey W. Walsh Injured.

New York, August 1.- A vast throng was attracted to the Brighton Beach racecourse today by the alluring prospect of seeing a great horse race for the rich prize in the Invincible Handicap at one mile and a quarter and each of the 20,000 racing devotees who were fortunate enough to be present on this memorable occasion got his or her money's worth. Ballot, Dandelion, Cairngorm, Far West, Cottontown and Fountainblue were dispatched out of the chute at exactly 4:10 o'clock, and after two minutes and three and two-fifths seconds of sustained speed and stamina James R. Keene's three-year-old chestnut colt, Ballot, by Voter-Cerito, passed the finishing line barely the width of a hand in front of Dandelion, with Cairngorm, in receipt of 18 pounds, third, four lengths away.

Ballot had grandly emulated his stablemates, Colin and Peter Pan, who blazed the way in a series of brilliant successes, and, like them, he was followed by the public with blind confidence and backed with implicit faith at even money and 9 to 10. Miller rode Ballot and rode him badly, the experts said. Both owner Keene and trainer Rowe declared that he rode the colt contrary to instruc That fact developed after the race.

Ballot outbroke the others and made the running, but by an unnecessary and too wide gap. horses like Far West, Fountainblue and Dandelion came at him in succession. Miller partially relinquished his pull to sprint away from Fountainon the backstretch. The pace at this stage of the running was tremendous and those most interested in the son of Voter were uneasy as they watched the carefully ridden Dandelion, saved and nursed and beginning to improve his position until he loomed up menacingly close to the leader at the beginning of the turn for home.

It was at this critical point of the race that Miller gave Ballot a moment of respite and saved him for the final heartbreaking struggle. When the pair straightened out in the stretch for a fraction time Dandelion's rush had carried him ahead of his young opponent and a groan went up as it seemed that he was beaten, but he rallied unexpectedly and for the entire length of the closing drive there ensued one of the most thrilling and exciting duels between two game horses that has ever been witnessed on the turf. They finished so nearly aligned that they were seemingly like one horse, yet the placing judges hung up figure one, Ballot's number without an instant of delay. The scene of enthusiasm that followed was indescribable There never was such wholesale handshaking on a race course.

Mr. Keene hurried down to the paddock where a great crowd of hero worshipers were already awaiting him. After receiving numerous congratulations with a gratified smile, he suddenly strode over to his trainer and in vigorous language denounced what termed Miller's shocking and fly-by-night ride. He berated Rowe for not riding Notter instead, de claring that the colt would have won easily by several lengths because that less fashionable rider would have obeyed their instructions to keep in behind a pacemaker if one showed up; otherwise make the pace a slow one, if forced to keep the lead, by waiting in front.

The fractional time of the various quarters of the race tell a different story. The six furlongs in 1:12% and the mile in 1:37%, with 117 pounds to carry over a long distance of ground are unique to say the least. Anyway, the horse cooled out long before his owner did. Miller's finish was a marvelous piece of horsemanship. No other jockey now riding could have pulled his mount out of the hole as he did and both gave an exhibition of persistency and gameness that has never been surpassed.

Fountainblue came back quite lame and may be broken down. Radtke's horsemanship on Dandelion received much favorable comment. Dandelion had no mishaps and not another ounce could have been gotten out of him. It was the best race in his long and distinguished career.

The third race was marred by the worst accident this year and one that may cost the life jockey W. Walsh. Saylor was the favorite, and he won all right, but the crowd was not interested in the race after the first furlong. It was there that the accident occurred. The field was rounding the first turn when Vino, ridden by Walsh, got in some sort of a mixup and went down. As he did so Walsh fell under him and the horse in getting up stepped on the boy's face and body. The lad was picked up delirious and an examination showed that one of his arms was broken and that he had A telephone mes suffered other serious injuries. sage from the physician at Coney Island tonight says that Walsh is resting easily and there is a chance that he will pull through.

e first race was delayed fifteen minutes because Corncob, the second choice, had to be reshod be-hind. The stewards excused trainer S. S. Marshall on his explanation that the colt was properly plated when he left Gravesend, but that his plates must have become loosened and dropped off while he was being led over to Brighton. The road was rough and part of the way paved with cobblestones. Corncob was unruly and jumping around continually.

The bugle had called the horses to the post and the jockeys were already up when the trainer, lift-ing the colt's hind feet to pick the dirt out, discovered the absence of plates.

Confederate and Gold Lady are recent important additions to the schooling list. Neoskaleeta was claimed out of the last race by

C. C. Smithson for $1,800.

POSING'S VICTORY IS A BIG SURPRISE.

Minos and Don Q. the Only Winning Favorites at Fort Erie.

Buffalo, N. Y., August 1.—It is surprising how orses that seem to stand out get beaten at Fort Minos and Don Q. were the only winning favorites today. The fact that all but a few of racing here are the cheapest kind of selling platers is responsible to a great extent for the inconsistent running. One day they will run a bang up race and then come back with a rank one.

of the biggest surprises of the afternoon was Posing's victory in the feature race. Posing was the extreme outsider, as she had every reason to be when one takes a line on her recent races She had plenty of speed today, however, and after laying in a contending position to the stretch turn, moved up with a rush, took command entering the furlong and won easily from Nat B. in 1:264. Meddlesome Boy bled and was eased up.

For the first race Soprano and J. W. O'Neill-were the two horses best supported, but they were never dangerous at any stage of the trip. Julia Gentzberger won, defeating Alsono by a head. Before the running of the steeplechase Judge Price told the jockeys that he would stand for no monkey business. Jockey Ford, who had the mount on Kilmorie, was the recipient of an extra warning. Kilmorie ran a smashing good race and won easily by a couple of lengths from the heavily backed Lights Out. Kilmorie and Sweet Jane pulled up

Minos made a runaway affair of the seventh race and in a driving finish lasted long enough to beat out Lord Dixon. There was a jam at the first turn, in which Azelina and Canopian encountered interference. Canopian went to his knees and unseated

The horse Father Catchem got loose from his groom while being led around his stable last night and, bolting out the gate on to the road, disappeared in the direction of Crystal Beach. His owner was still looking for him this afternoon

TO RACE EIGHTEEN DAYS AT YONKERS

Meeting Will Open Saturday, August 10-Jockey Club Gives Its Approval.

New York, August 1.—At last the trouble between the Jockey Club and Empire City seems to be settled. At a meeting of the Jockey Club stewards, held today, dates were granted the Yonkers track for an eighteen day meeting, beginning Saturday August 10 and ending Friday August 30. H. J. Morris was appointed steward to represent the Jockey Club, while Matt J. Winn will represent the association. These two are to agree upon the third steward.

Among the list of names submitted for presiding judge were those of Charles F. Grainger, James H. Rees, Charles F. Price and Will Shelley, the understanding being that either one of these will be acceptable. Mr. Winn said tonight that it had not been decided yet just who would be presiding judge. Lyman H. Davis will be secretary and handicapper; Jacob Holtman, starter L. N. Simon, clerk of the scales and W. W. Lyles, paddock and patrol

The program for the meeting will be arranged with all dispatch possible and horsemen will know by the first of the week what they may expect at

That the meeting will be made up largely of the western element is conceded by all, though not a few eastern owners will take the chance to make expenses while horses of the better class are at Saratoga.

George C. Bennett, the Memphis horseman, arrived from the west last night and was at Brighton Beach today. He declined to discuss the Yonkers meeting in connection with western horses or horse-

BALLOT TO SUPPLANT PETER PAN.

Will Fill the Engagements in Three Important Stakes at Saratoga.

New York, August 1.-Ballot is to be James R. Keene's main reliance at Saratoga, now that Peter Pan is temporarily on the ailing list. Both have the same engagements-the Saratoga Handicap, the Great Republic and the Saratoga Cup. Superman and Zambesi have trained off and they show Neither of them can get up a respectable gallop in their morning trials. They, too, are to be rested up. The Brighton Handicap winner was rested up. The Brighton Handleap winner was shown to slow jogging exercise this morning with hardly any trace of lameness in evidence, but one prominent trainer remarked that Rowe would be tempting fate by sending Peter Pan along at anything faster than a jog just now, adding that a middle tendon might be affected.

In any event, with Ballot to worthily represent him at Sarafoga, Mr. Keene is said to have remarked that this was an opportune time to give Peter Pan a let-up and freshen him up for his many rich and important stake engagements in the fall.

CLUBHOUSE BETTING TOO HEAVY.

New York, August 1.—There is a story affoat at Brighton, and it was vouched for by a person sources of information entitle anything he may say to high consideration, to the effect that betting in the clubhouse with regular bookmakers shortly is to be suppressed by the Jockey Club. It is the opinion of several stewards of the Jockey Club, also of two members of the Racing Commission, that clubhouse betting has reached proportions it was not intended it should when the "commissioners" were first permitted to operate

"commissioners," although they are The known by that name, are really bookmakers, and the betting with them is conducted pretty much as it with the layers in the ring. It is the opinion of the stewards, who desire that this betting shall be suppressed, that there is too much of it that is too open and that it shocks one's sense of the fitness of things. If the commisioners are removed from the clubhouse, they will, of course, find refuge in the betting ring, which, in the opinion of more than one steward, is the proper place for speculation.

FIRESTONE AT TOP FOR WINGED FOOT.

New York, August 1.-In apportioning the weights for the Winged Foot Handicap at six furlongs which is to be decided Saturday, the closing day of the Brighton meeting, Mr. Vosburgh gave Thomas Williams' little colt Firestone top weight of 128 pounds. This unusual honor caused horsemen to pounds. gasp with astonishment. The giant Chapultepec got 127 and Meelick 125 pounds. Barney Schreiber's Seymour Beutler is in at 112, Hessian at 100 is leniently treated. Seventy-seven two-year-olds are still eligible.

MASQUERADE IS PROMISING.

Masquerade, the bay filly by Disguise—Splendour, which is carded to make her debut in the first race at Brighton Beach today was bred by James R. Keene at his Castleton Stud and is a half-sister to Dazzling and Durbar. Masquerade is said to have shown wonderfully fast trials in private. She is one of Mr. Keene's Futurity candidates. She has two stake engagements at Saratoga—the Saratoga and Hopeful—both of which Mr. Keene won last year, the former with Court Dress and the latter with Peter Pan.

NOTES OF THE TURF.

E. R. Bradley will ship his horses from Brighton Beach to Saratoga Sunday.

One of the additions to the Montreal Jockey Club's plant this fall will be a large dining room for stable men.

Royal Vane spread one of his feet in his last race and C. E. Durnell says it will be a long time before he races again.

At the entrance to James R. Keene's stable at Sheepshead Bay is a sign which reads: "No person allowed inside, excepting employes."

In the hope that it will add to his racing usefulness, James R. Keene's Grimaldi, the three-year-old son of Disguise—Calico, has been gelded.

Von Tromp is draining William McKinney's patience and pocketbook. His last winning race was at Ascot Park March 23. Since then he has started eight times.

Nimbus is a better horse than was Kentucky Beau last year. He has won his last three races in a fashion which entitles him to serious considera-tion among the best of the two-year-olds, Johnny Reiff, who was riding Sourdine in the race for the Stewards' Cup at Goodwood, England, Tuesday, was fined $50 and suspended for the re-mainder of the meeting for anticipating the start.

Winner—Ch. f, by Peep o'Day—Agnodice (trained by M. Welsh).

Went to post at 4:56. At post 2, minutes. Start poor. Won driving; second and third the same. Inauguration, clear of interference throughout, wore Dandy Daneer down in the final furlong and outstayed her in a well contested drive. Dandy Dancer, lucky and showing her customary high speed, appeared the winner on the stretch turn, but fired suddenly. Bewitched showed sudden improvement and was a prominent factor all the way. Kitty Smith ran a fairly good race and had no mishaps. Whisk Broom quit, in the last quarter. Lady Elkhorn was practically left. Etta Louise wheeled as the barrier went up and Overweights—Lady Elkhorn, 2 pounds; Etta Louise, 3.
